6:57 PM me: still there?
6:59 PM Catalina: hi yes
just finished the mri me: model was fucking useless I guess she just wanted to hang out but she's apparently too busy to do any video production for us 7:00 PM Catalina: busy with what?
me: gigs, nascent music career also she isn't the sort of person with whom I'd get along 7:01 PM Catalina: why/me: first of all, she asked me if I wanted to go eat at the Olive Garden Catalina: ooohhh awful
and shes a model?
those people are not supposed to eat 7:02 PM especially not at places like the olive garden

5 minutes

7:07 PM me: yeah 7:08 PM having met a lot of models recently, it seems that they don't really act as one would expect many happen to be intelligent she is, but she kept hounding me about my smoking and was horrified at the uncleanliness of the apartment 7:09 PM and, worst of all, had no interest at all in working with us on projects but she wouldn't have been good anyway we've got like five people or more coming over tomorrow for magazine conference Catalina: what time?
7:10 PM me: all afternoon, sort of mostly at five informal, though one chick I talked to today Catalina: im going home now me: word hey, you should call me while you're walking to train so I can keep rambling at you

Catalina: we'll talk tomorrow im sure

7:11 PM i cant

me: very well

Catalina: too cold and i dont have gloves me: I should be working anyway

Catalina: also im walking out with Dr. Hart who has been patiently waiting for me you can call me later though or ill talk to you tomorrow bye

me: adios
